

Bank One Gospel Choir

Bessie Coleman

Doktu Rhute Muuzic

Jesse White Tumblers

Classic Car Show

Events & Activities

Saturday, May 29th • 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Appearing at 57th Drive

- Bank One Gospel Choir
- Jesse White Tumblers
- Salvation Army Pans of Thunder (Steel Drum Band)
- Historic Photos of South Lake Shore Drive, Burnham Park and Jackson Park
- Mayor Daley's Bicycle Ambassadors
- Children's Activity:
Fancy Footprint Art at 57th Street Beach Boardwalk

Appearing at 63rd Street

- Doktu Rhute Muuzic (Blues)
- Reginald T. McCants Trio (Jazz)
- Diamono Dancers & Drummers (Traditional African Dance)
- Brickheadz (Hip-Hop Breakdancers)
- Classic Car Show
- Jesse White Tumblers
- Extreme Kite Flying by Kite Harbor
- Children's Activity: Sand Road Building at 63rd Street Beach

Throughout the day at all four new pedestrian underpasses in Jackson Park (57th Drive, 59th Street, 63rd Street and Marquette Drive) performers portraying extraordinary Chicagoans—including Bessie Coleman, Jean Baptiste Point du Sable, Frederick Law Olmsted and Jesse Owens—will speak about their roles in the city's history. Food and beverages, available at 57th Drive and 63rd Street.

Special Assistance
Provided By:

Diamono Dancers & Drummers

Jesse Owens

Reginald T. McCants

JourneySong & Friends